

Offer these to men who know fine tools!

Made of one forging from handle to tip of special analysis steel — perfectly hardened to stand wrench and strain without chipping nor bending — handles shaped to fit the grip — made to absolutely prevent splitting and loosening. Force and twist them as you will, "Lenox" handles cannot come off.

Smoothly finished — attractively packaged — well advertised — each one carrying an unconditional guarantee — Lenox Screw Drivers please those men who look for the best. They're priced to give the dealer decent profits.
